Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Think Big, which airs on WXIX's main digital channel, serves the educational and informational needs of teens 13-16 years of age. The series shows kids and teens actively solving problems using scientific principles, combining skill and creativity. The series also demonstrates real-world applications for math, science and engineering, proving the physical sciences can be useful, challenging and fun. Each episode presents an "invent off" challenge, where teenage teams must invent a machine designed to perform a specific task in a limited amount of time. [Due to technical difficulties on November 17, 2018 at 7:00AM, episode #107 of Think Big was joined in progress and did not air in full. As a result, we did not include the November 17 run of Think Big in our core E/I totals. Think Big #107 aired in full in its second home on November 25 at 2:00PM and that run is included in the core E/I programming.]

Look Kool, which airs on WXIX's secondary digital channel Ion TV, is a weekly half-hour series produced and designed to educate and inform children 6 to 9 years of age. On every episode, the male host, Hamza, interacts with an animated robot cat, a historical guest, children, and other animated creatures. The basic premise of the show is that math is everywhere and each episode includes real children who help Hamza solve mathematical or scientific curiosities. Look Kool works hard to highlight for learners the link between the lesson and real life in order to activate and keep the children's interest. Live action children in real world settings put the lesson of the episode into action by seeking its value within everyday life. Look Kool is a highly educational program and speaks to the curious minds and active imaginations of elementary age kids and encourages the transfer of knowledge out into everyday life.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WXIX-TV airs a variety of public service announcements in teen time periods. Campaigns include not wasting food and discovering nature. WXIX-TV is also involved in a variety of ongoing and seasonal non-broadcast activities such as career day presentations, community festivals, and fundraising efforts such as Food From the Heart. Due to an error in programming provided directly from the network (Grit TV) on October 27, 2018 at 12:30PM, episode #304 of Rock the Park aired without the required E/I graphic. As a result, we did not include the October 27 run of Rock the Park episode #304 in our core E/I totals. Rock the Park episode #304 ran again in its second home on November 3 at 1:00PM with the E/I graphic and that run is included in the core E/I programming.
